

Research a City

This term we have been learning about cities and megacities (cities with more than 10 million people). Your task is to produce a poster or piece of writing about a city anywhere in the world. You could find out about the city's population (number of people), the country it is in and its attractions (famous buildings etc.).