

Year 2 homework13th January 2025

Please complete page 9 in the comprehension workbook.

Spelling - The general rule for adding "-ed" to a word is double the final consonant if the word has one syllable and ends in a vowel followed by a consonant.

Homework to be handed in next Monday

chatted	fitted
spotted	stopped
wrapped	popped
planned	jogged
hugged	people

Year 2 homework13th January 2025

Please complete page 9 in the comprehension workbook.

Spelling - The general rule for adding "-ed" to a word is double the final consonant if the word has one syllable and ends in a vowel followed by a consonant.

Homework to be handed in next Monday

chatted	fitted
spotted	stopped
wrapped	popped
planned	jogged
hugged	people

Year 2 homework13th January 2025

Please complete page 9 in the comprehension workbook.

Spelling - The general rule for adding "-ed" to a word is double the final consonant if the word has one syllable and ends in a vowel followed by a consonant.

Homework to be handed in next Monday

chatted	fitted
spotted	stopped
wrapped	popped
planned	jogged
hugged	people